

“Australia - China 2.0”, the next phase of our economic partnership

Breakfast briefing with the Hon Kevin Rudd MP

The Australian Government together with Asia Society/Asialink and the Australia China Business Council invite you to a breakfast briefing on China hosted by the Minister for Foreign Affairs, the Hon Kevin Rudd MP.

Attend this briefing in Brisbane to hear the Minister explain the importance of the next phase of economic engagement between our two countries, "Australia—China 2.0".

Briefing details

Date: Friday 24 June, 2011

Time: 7.30am - 9.00am

Venue: Sofitel Brisbane Central, 249 Turbot Street

The Brisbane briefing is complimentary in line with the Australian Government's decision to support Queensland companies affected by recent natural disasters.

This seminar will explore China's economic trajectory over the next 30 years and provide insight into how your business can position itself to benefit from these changes.

In addition, you will have the opportunity to participate in a Q&A session after the plenary presentation and have your questions about doing business in China answered.

Details of the business mission to China in early August which will be led by Minister Rudd and the Minister for Trade, the Hon Dr Craig Emerson MP will also be announced.

Places are limited

Please register now by clicking here

This event is part of a national program of briefings taking place in June and July to be held in Sydney on 7 July (evening), Perth on 12 July (breakfast) and Melbourne on 14 July (late afternoon).

Supported by

Australia China Business Council
澳大利亚中国工商业委员会